

The 'do not call list' that NJ has is a good idea. It keeps people from annoying phone calls that can disrupt people lives and helps prevent or the continuation of the invasion of peoples privacy.